

Houston-Sugar Land-Baytown, TX

- In 2007, the Houston-Sugar Land-Baytown metropolitan area was the second largest export market in the United States, with sales totaling $62.8 billion.
- The Houston metropolitan area accounted for 48 percent of Texas' merchandise exports in 2007.
- Mexico was the leading export destination for Houston's exports of goods in 2007. Other leading destinations were Canada and China.
- Chemicals were the top Houston export for 2007, accounting for $21.5 billion, or 34 percent, of exported goods.
- Other top exports were machinery, except electrical ($12.2 billion, 19 percent); petroleum and coal products ($11.5 billion, 18 percent); and computer and electronic products ($6.1 billion, 10 percent).

Data year: 2007. Last updated: February 11, 2009.

Contact: Liz Clark (202-482-5732) & Michael Greene (202-482-2551), Office of Trade and Industry Information